Unfinished Business:

1. Kent received a revised final map from Sentry. It still did not include several existing plots with the additional names/information. Kent will reach out again and ask them to combine all of the information from both the original we have had along one final map. However, it seems they are reluctant to spend any more time on the project.
2. Lower shed damage: We were not able to secure someone for the repairs. Jeff has a good contact and will reach out to Ron Tucker with Dunn Rite Construction.
3. No work has been started on headstone repairs at this time. Jeff will inquire as to why.

New Business:

1. Kent shared about his attendance at the last meeting and discussed the taking over of South Moline and Rose Lawn Cemetery put forth by Sorling Northrup and some of the ramifications of the move. It appears unclear of any details at this point.
2. Winter grounds inspection has been postponed due to weather and time constraints.
